THANKS .- The treasurer of the Ladies' Meorial Association acknowledges the receipt of $1775 cents trous the Majons on Memoria day through Mrs. M. A. Snowden.

NEW BUILDING .- The Messrs. Devereux have almost completed the large shed for Messrs. Cameron & Barkley, on Meeting street, next to the corner of Tumberland. The building measures 66x110 feet, and will be used by the proprietors as an adjunct to their storehouse.

A NUISANCE.—The people in the west and northwest portions of the city have their slumbers interrupted almost nightly by the bands of hooting, yelling vagabonds who congregate and roam at large in those quarters. Their ribald songs, coughs and curses are to be heard at all hours. Police ! Police ! !

RECOVERY i number of articles, the property of Mr. Meyers, consisting of one hundred and eighty dollars in money, two revolvers and one railrowl ticket, were recovered lately by the detective force. Other property also, consisting of a lot of silver spoons, sundry articles of clothing and one towl, have been recaptured.

THE SECURITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF New York, which is represented in this city by Mr. Louis Sherfesee, the local agent, has recently paid claims to the extent of $10,000. The acknowledgment published elsewhere shows that the company have promptly met all losses. The Security has been very successful in the South. Six hundred and ten new policies were issued in this State alone during the past year, while the business has increased correspondingly elsewhere.

POLICE ITEMS. -Thos. Roach and Edward Owen were arrested for-disorderly conduct. The former was fined $5. John Coleman also was arrested on the combined charges-disofderly conduct and vagrancy. Henry Tucker, a colored boy, was likewise arrested as a vagrant, and sent to his mother. H. Draine, an offender, was arrested and lodged for satekeeping. Lizzle Middleton and Robt. Grant were arrested for breaches of the peace. The parties were bound over. Jordan Lee, E. W. Bell and ___ Russell appeared before Trial Justice McKinlay, charged with assault and battery, in an aggravated form. They were all bound over.

MURDER IN ST. JAMES GOOSE CREEK. Pinckney Grooms, a young man in the prime of life, was killed at his house, in St. James Goose Creek, on the 26th instant, by Hugh W. Winter. It appears from the testimony taken at the inquest, that Pringle Winter, a brother of Hugh W. Winter, came to Grooms' house on the morning of the 26th of July, and raised a quarrel with Grooms, and cursed him, and then went away, but returned again after being absent a few hours, in company with Hugh W. Winter, and the quarrel was renewed. story of a building on Wentworth str Grooms ordered them to leave his premises, but they refused to go; and while Pringle Winter engaged Grooms' attention in front, Hugh W. Winter came up in the rear and to the list of vice-presidents. struck Grooms a severe blow on the right temple with a hoe, after which he lived only a few hours. Nelson Joyner, trial justice, acting as coroner on the occasion, has committed both the Winters to Charleston County Ja for trial in November next.

THAT ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—The following paragraph, published in a city paper on Wednesday, is incorrect in all the most essential particulars:

Shot by Mistake.—Mr. J. B. Wright, of this city, was shot through the arm on Monday night last, while quietly walking along St. Philip street toward his home. We are informed that the shot was fired by Robert, Scott, who, after being arrested, a nowledged that he did fire the shot, but that he had mistaken Mr wright for some one else, and that it was not meant for him. On this explanation Mr. Wright withdrew the complaint, and Scott

Wright, who is a colored member of the Legislature, on Monday night was attending a meeting of a charitable association. The meeting took place indoors, and Scott and other persons were present. One of the parties accused Scott of misusing the funds of the society, to which charge Scott rejoined that his accuser was a thief and a liar, and received a slap in the face for his pains. Scott taking his seat for a few moments, arose, exclaiming, "I will shoot you !" And taking a pistol from his pocket, fired at his accuser, who, dodging out of the way, escaped the shot. Wright, who was apparently standing just beyond, or at least near by the person almed at, received the ball in his arm. Such appears to be the true statement of the case.

A FINE SPECIMEN OF CHARLESTON WORK-MANSHIP.—Mr. J. H. Linsebrink, the cabinet-thing, to redeem his native State, to drive out maker, has just completed at his shop, No. 85 King street, a few doors below Broad street, a large sideboard, which is at once a very cred- and prosperity. He said that Winchester rifles itable achievement of his taste and skill as a joiner, and a striking evidence of the undeveloped resources of valuable wood in our ustive forests. The material of the sideboard is the Southern hard fellow pige, with which the mouldings, in dark walnut, afford a rich and pleasing contrast. Few would imagine, before looking on this exquisite piece of furniture, the surpassing beauty of the grain of the pine, which we have in such abundance among us, or the degree of polish, of which, under the cunning hands of the artisan, it is susceptible. The sideboard was made to order for one of our oldzens, and will remain a day or two in the establishment of Mr. Linsebrink. It is worth a visit.

THE CITY ORGANIZING.

The Wards Moving for Reform WARD II ALIVE FOR REFORM. A preliminary meeting of citizens of Ward 2 was held in one of the lower grooms of Hibernian Hall last evening, for the purpose of takof that ward who sympathize with the movement to secure honesty and economy in our State Government, and low taxation and better times for all our people. The attendance of men of character and substance, both white and colored, was quite large, and the evident feeling of quiet earnestness that prevailed was in the highest degree encouraging.

Mr. W. H. Easterby was called to preside as temporary chairman, and briefly addressed the meeting, enforcing the gravity and importance of the work before us, and the absolute necessity that every man who had anything to lose in the present, or anything to hope in the future, should bravely put his shoulder to the wheel and unite with his fellow-citizens in the grand movement to rid the State of its present corrupt and shameless rulers.

Messrs. Joseph Samson and Henry Hall were chosen secretaries of the meeting. On motion of Mr. E. Henry, it was Resolved. That a committee of six be appointed by the chair to draft a pian of organization for the Reform Club of Ward 2.

The chair announced the committee as follows: Messrs. C. O. Trumbo, Wm. Ingliss, Charles Michael, John Nelson, J. H. Ostendorff and Walter Webb, Jr.

On motion of Mr. C. O. Trumbo, the chairman was directed to appoint a committee of six to nominate suitable persons as officers of the club. The chair announced the committee as follows : Messrs. George H. Moffett, Henry Hall, Thomas Fraser, S. N. Brown, J. N. Nathans, J. R. Smith and D. O'Keefe. On motion of Mr. Wm. Ingliss, it was resolved that when this meeting adjourn it stands adjourned until Monday evening next, when the committee above named are directed to present their reports. The secretary was also directed to give notice in the daily papers of the meeting on Monday next, that all the citizens of Ward No. 2 may have an opportunity to participate in the organization of the club.

The meeting then adjourned.

REPORM MEETING OF WARD III. The voters of this ward had a full and interesting meeting at the Hibernian Hall last night. Their purpose was to establish a permanent organization. The committee appointed at a previous meeting to drait a constitution and by-laws, reported their proceedings. The report was unanimously adopted. The committee on the nomination of officers next made their report, having made choice of the following gentlemen: John F. Britton, president; W. P. Patterson, David Marsh, Wm. H. Berry, Wm. Corbert, J. Sanders, R. C. Cowan, vicepresidents; Robert Starr, John Brown, secretaries; W. G. Miller, corresponding secretary; J. Burke, treasurer.

Mr. Brit:on .not being present, a committee of three was appointed to inform him of his election. During the absence of the commitee the meeting was addressed by speakers.

Mr. Jacob Matthews pitched into the carpet baggers in lively style, who, he said, had fooled and deceived the colored people in every way. He delivered a warm eulogy on Messrs. Carpenter and Butler, and urged his colored friends, as they valued their own prosperity, to stand by the South Carolinians, whom they had always known and respected.

Mr. Britton was then introduced to the body by the temporary chairman, and welcomed by a general burst of applause. He made a short and eloquent speech, thanking the club for the distinguished consideration they had shown him in calling him to preside over their deliberations. He assured them of his hearty cooperation in the cause of Reform, and pledged himself to devote all his energies to secure its success. He took his seat amid deatening cheers. The committee appointed at a previous meeting to secure a hall for the use of the club, now reported that they had obtained the upper merly used as a carriage repository by Mr. M. H. Nathan. The report was accepted. On motion, Messrs. Monahan and Hall were added

Mr. Wm. A. Sneed was now called forth to address the meeting. His appearance elicited loud cheers from the entire assembly. His speech was of the same pertinent and jocose nature as the one delivered on the night pre vious before the club of Ward No. 4. He advocated the principles of Reform most ardently, and illustrated his points by amusing anecdotes. He fully exposed that great engine of Radicalism, the Union League, avowing that it was a disgrace to humanity and 'to the world, and kept his race in a more degraded state of slavery than they had ever before endured.

Mr. William Black made an eloquent and Sensible speech. Throughout his remarks he received the most respectful attentention, and was frequently applauded. He set forth the importance of Reform, and the magnitude of its plinciples in a manner which showed that he understood his subject, while his defence of Judge Carpenter and General Butier against the imputations cast upon them by the Ring, afforded the highest proof of his earnestness in behalf of the cause. He manifested the deepest regret that there was no Reform Club in his ward, which, he said, was a Radical den. But he avowed his intention to work until the last, and if the Ring is not defeated, it shall not be his fault. He retired loudly cheered. Mr. Francis now addressed the assembly, expressing his regrets that it was not the members of his own ward to whom he spoke; but inasmuch as it was in behalf of a common interest, he would not confine himself to his own ward, nor his own county, but to the whole State. He wished, above everything, to redeem his native State, to drive out re-establish her once more in a career of honor were not to terrify the Reform party-that a fair election would be had at all events, and that if there should be any interposition of Winchester rifles, it might be possible that a few old Confederate muskets could yet be tound. Mr. Francis, in the course of his remarks, received hearty applause. Business was again resumed, and the president was empowered to appoint five delegates to the central executive club.

On motion, the committee on obtaining a hall were further commissioned to prepare it for the use of the club.

It was moved that a finance committee be appointed at the next meeting. The next regular meeting of the club will be on Tuesday, 9th prox. The reply to the request of Ward 4 was deferred until the next meeting. The club then adjourned. THE MEETING IN WARD NO. 4. The following resolutions were adopted by the Reform Club of Ward No. 4, at their meetng on Wednesday 1 ght:

Resolved, That the several wards of the city be invited to appoint delegates to a conven-tion, to be called of all the wards in the city, to organize a central committee.

Resolved, That this wa'd proceed at once to the appointment of five delegates to attend gold convention.

It was moved and carri-d that the president make the appointments at his leisure.

THE GERMAN RIFLE CLUB meets at Lindstedt's. Hall this evening, to consider the invitation of the Germania Rifle Club of Washington, D. C., to visit their festival on the 1st, 2d and 3d of September next.

THE COMING AMUSEMENT SEASON.-It will be pleasant news to our people, oppressed with the heat and duliness of these piping August days, to learn that Miss Laura Keene, whose excellent company gave so much satisfaction here last season, has become the lessee of our beautiful Academy of Music for the coming fall and winter, and is now maturing plans for presenting in our city a pleasing and varied succession of dramatic attractions. The period at which the fall season is to open has not, as yet, we believe, been fixed.

SUIT FOR LIBEL .- T. J. Mackey has instituted a suit for libel against the editors of the Ring Organ in this city. It appears that in an article published by them, of which Mackey was the subject, among the charges set forth is one that, whilst Mackey was a "city father," he was unmindful of the interests of his people, and was not ejected from the Council until he attempted the murder of his nephew. at one of its regular meetings. This charge Mackey resents, and appeals to the law for satisfaction. The authors of the alleged libel were compelled to give bonds in the sum of $1000 each to answer the charge at court. E. P. Wall stood their security.

THE REMOVAL OF DR. PARKER.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. There is no change in office, made by Governor Scott, that will be felt by our whole State more keenly than the removal of Dr. J. W. Parker, as superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum in Columbia, and certainly by none more than those who have bad the misfortune to have friends in that institution. Dr. Parker was a man above all others who our entire community supposed would be let alone. Dr. A. G. Mackey, chairman of the Board of Regents of that institution, said Dr. Parker. must not be removed, as he was a man whom very one thought the most fit man that could be found. Dr. Mackey has been absent from Columbia so ne time, and during his absence this outrage on humanity has been probably committed, as be distinctly told a gentleman n this city, if Dr. Parker was removed, he should resign his position as chairman of the pard. By whom, then, was it done? By Governor Scott! And for what? To make room for a man said to be an entire stranger to our people. Is there any Republican who can or dare say that the man appointed is the superior of Dr. Parker. Why, then, was he removed? Can it be possible that the party who now govern the State have sunk so low in morals, so vindictive in hate to every promipent man in South Carclina, that they have inflicted upon the poor unfortunate inmates an entire stranger to watch over them? One who t is said has no experience in matters of this kind. For their sakes, for the sake of one who is near and dear to the writers we hope this person selected may prove half as good as the one removed. Governor Scott, with the unbounded influence he has over this party, could have prevented it. Governor Scott is. therefore, responsible for the removal of this most excellent man, and Governor Scott is responsible for all the mismanage went that may appen to the poor unfortunate inmates of that institution whom God has deprived of reason. When a party can be so malignant as to resort to such means as these-God help us. What says the party organ to this removal.

JUSTICS. THE REV. JONAS BYRD IN EDGE-

FIELD.

The Edgefield_Advertiser notices the arrival in Edgefield County of the Rev. Jonas Byrd, whose manly speech in the Reform! Convertion won for him the well-done for the good eople of the State. The Advertiser says: The Rev. Jonas Byrd is a colored man, apparently about sixty years of age, whose home is in Charleston. He is a highly respectable man and citizen, and a minister of the gospel whose daily walk and conversation is above repreach. He is also a bold, honest and steadfast supporter of the Reform party, and was a delegation of the Reform party. gate from Charleston to the Reform Conven-tion, in which body he was nominated for the important office of Lieutenant-Governor, a important omce of Lieutenant-Governor, a nomination which he declined in a tew very sensible words, urging at the same time the nomination of General Butler. And it will be remembered, likewise, that he made before the convention one of the ablest and most effective speeches of the session.

On Thursday or Friday last, this colored champion of good and pure government arrived in our midst, and tarried among us until the following Monday afternoon. During his stay in Edgefield he was entertained by a colored citizen, who, like himself, stands out from the mass of his brethren as a bold and nest adherent of the Reform party-a man nonest adherent of the Keloriz party—a man who, from the emancipation down to the present time, has had the very rare good sense and independence never to allow himself to be led, influenced or embittered by designing Radical emissaries—George Simkins.

On Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Jonas Byrd.

led, influenced or embittered by designing Radical emissaries—George Simkins.

On Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Jonas Byrd preached in the Baptist Church to a large congregation of his own color, and on the day following, it being sales, day, and there being a large crowd in attendance, he spoke in the courthouse upon political matters. Indeed, his errand in the up-country is to lift his voice in behalf of the Reform movement.

The meeting to hear the Rev. Jonas Byrd was organized by calling to the chair the Rev.

The meeting to hear the Rev. Jonas Byrd was organized by calling to the chair the Rev. D. D. Brunson, and requesting Messrs. R. A. Lynch and George Simkins to act as secretaries. The audience was very large, very attentive, and very respectful. That half of the courthouse, now by common consent given up to the colored people, was densely crowded, and the freedmen, if not agreeing with the speaker generally, were, at all events, extremely attentive and courteous, showing that they had a proper appreciation of his honesty of conviction and integrity of purpose.

His speech was decidedly a good one, plain and blunt, but full of quaint hits and irrefutable facts. He shrewdly laid bare all the ignoble motives, schemes, practices and aspiraable facts. He snrewdiy faid user all the igno-ble motives, schemes, practices and aspira-tions of the present State Government, and of the great body of carpet-baggers in general; feelingly showed and conclusively proved to his brethren that in all things their interests are identical with those of the whites; and are intentical white their political co-operation in the consummation of all plans for the mental, moral and physicial elevation of all classes and moral and physicial elevation of all classes and all colors throughout our State. The speech was listened to with deep inter-est and attention by the whole audience, and we cannot but believe that the unmistakable honesty, good sense and humanity of the speaker will have a salutary and lasting effect upon those of his own race in this section of coentry.

The Rev. Jonas Byrd departed from Edge-field to Join the Reform speakers at Newberry on Tuesday last.

After the main speech was concluded, on Monday, Governor Bonham being in the audience, was called upon, and made a short but earnest speech, addressed principally to his colored hearers, and admirably calculated to open their eyes as regards the delusion they abor under, that not upon them, but upon the labor under, that not upon them, but upon the landholders alone, fall the burdens and distresses of the present rulnous taxation.

FALSE PRETENCES.—THE VAST and continually increasing sales of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS have provoked the envy of a ertain class of dealers in various parts of the country, who are trying to substitute their atterly worthless local nostrums for the most popular proprietary medicine in the world. These impos ters hope by their false statements to obtain from the millions who patronize the great Araerican Tonic a sufficient number of customers to make their speculations upon the health of their neighpors profitable. As the demand for HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is now so large and urgent as to tax to their fullest extent the facilities for its manufacture, these petty attempts to wring in the merest rash by false representations, are of little consequence to I's proprietors. They are, however, a serious evil to the victimized. If, for example, at this warm season, when a real invigorant is great ly needed, the sufferer from general debility, infigestion, billousness or nervous weakness, is coaxed into-using a wishy-washy compound without any medicinal virtue instead of the sovereign specific in which the rarest tonic and alterative vegetable elements are scientifically combined, it is obvious that he will rue the day when he allowed himself to be thus deluded. ducing mauses, headache and prostration. They are often given when they are not needed; and not unfrequently they increase the irritation of the brain instead of soothing it. Probably in seventy-five cases out of a hundred in which they are administered, PLANTATION BITTERS given in moderate doses and at proper intervals would have the desired effect. Persons who find it dfficult to compose their minds to sleep after lying down at night, or whose slumbers are disturbed by bad dreams, or are too brief to afford due nour ishment, are advised to try the Plantatian Bitters as an anodyne; for this comprehensive medicine is not only a tonic and alterative, but a delightfu sedative-a "baim of hurt minds," as well as: revivider of enfeebled frames.

Its use, as a means of producing healthful sleep. involves none of the unpleasant secondary conse quences of a resort to the former narcotics. They all, without exception, excite the stomach; wille the effect of the Bitters is to tone, and without

From the time when, in 1834, Dr. RUGGE discovored "Carbolic Acid" and its extraordinary medical effects, nothing in the history of Medicine has equalled it. Largely used by the French physicians in treatment of consumptive and scrofuous diseases, it was introduced by the Court Physician of Berlin, MAX ERNST HENRY, into Prussia, and from thence to the United States. Nothing else of the present day can equal HENjuly27-wfm6 RY'S SOLULION OR CARBOLIC CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR.
